

Mayor Jean Quan Invites you to Welcome Anthony Finnell to the Oakland CPRB

Police Accountability: Be a Part of the Conversation!

After an extensive search process, Mayor Quan and the City of Oakland are excited to welcome Anthony Finnell as the new Executive Director of the Citizens Police Review Board (CPRB). We invite all Oaklanders to meet Mr. Finnell and learn more about their rights under the CPRB.

Who is Anthony Finnell?

- Mr. Finnelle has worked nationally to improve community/police relations.
- As a Sergeant for the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department (IMPD) he introduced and implemented the O.K. Program.
- He most recently served as the Supervising Investigator for the Independent Police Review Authority in Chicago.
- Mr. Finnell is committed to improving relations between all Oaklanders and the police force.

What is the Citizens Police Review Board (CPRB)?

- The CPRB is dedicated to ensuring that Oakland has a professional police department whose members behave with integrity and justice.
- The CPRB investigates and reviews complaints about Oakland police officer conduct.
- The board strives to improve police services for all citizens of Oakland, regardless of socio-economic status, race, ethnicity, or citizenship status.

Why should I come?

- A City of Oakland survey indicated that the vast majority of negative interactions with the Oakland Police Department are never formally reported.
- Learn about the CPRB and how they can help you. It is your right as an Oakland citizen to ensure that your voice is heard!
- At the event we will have CPRB staff available to answer questions and help you file reports with the CPRB.
