mason's happy hour is almost identical to spataros, except they do specials on drinks using specific booze. IE, any drink with absolut $4.00. the food is not as good as spataro, with the exception of the fritto misto. the food is all three bucks if memory serves.

spataro raised their prices by a buck across the board. It used to be the best, but then they moved all decent beer up to 4.00, which is not a very good deal. Used to be able to get a peron for two bucks.

Here is my own personal list I have compiled through months of "research":

- *Nishiki 2:30-6pm, drinks, sushi & apps.
- *Uncle Vito's-4-6pm & late night(v aries), beer & slice $5.
- *Mason's,4-6pm, drink & food.
- *Spataro, 4-6:30, drink & food.
- *3 Fires, 4-6pm, drink & food
- *Paesonos, 4-6pm, drink & food.
- *Dragonfly, 3-6pm, drink & food.
- *Bistro 33 midtown, 4-7pm, drink & food.
- *McC & Schm, 4-6 & 9:30-close, great food $, but 2.5 drink min, with no drink specials.
- *Kasbah, 4-7pm, drink & food.
- *Stonegrill, 4-6pm, drink & food.
- *Hanger 17, 4-6pm(?)drink & food.
- *Monkey Bay, 3-7pm, drink specials.
- *Golden Bear, 3-6, drink specials.
- *Tamaya (unsure hours) sake bombs & food.
- *Grand Wine Bar-$2 off all wine by glass.
- *Rubicon, $2 tuesdays pint of beer.

That's all I can remember for now....I love happy hour....

hmm...change of venue perhaps? jeremy, i've gone on a thursday before (don't remember the pink theme...gotta say...but i'm not very observant at times) and it skews towards the after work crowd. I think that's what andee means by old. Lots of dudes with their secretaries. That kind of thing. A hobo came in and announced to the entire place that they were asking for money, which was pretty entertaining (remember the hobo entertainment factor rule).

GV Hurley's does not have a happy hour. They have a pretty good winelist, but drinks are pricey. I had the shrimp and grits. Weirdly enough it tasted like clam chowder. Lots of sleazy old dudes (and not Jeremy "old", I'm talking your dad's golf buddies old). The rest of the menu looked intriguing enough that I'll be back to try more though.

R15 3-7pm every day. $2 PBR, Coors Light, Bud Light and wells.

We hit McCormack & Schmick's last Thursday eve for a little pre-flight birthday weekend bash

Happy Hour - ordered the oysters on the half shell (3 orders 'cause we're little pigs) the buffalo wings (which I normally try to avoid in restaurants because it's so easy to be mediocre - but those were meaty and damned good!), and the spring rolls - all pretty yummy!

Fro the looks of the burger, it's a heck of a deal, and I would love to try the calimari....but their drink minimum (and our hefty thirst) rang up a $120.00 appi bills in short order....LOL!

All in all, still pretty decent Happy Hour offerings, though I think I'm going to try Celestin's next from the reviews here - thanks for the heads up.

I'm sure my obit will look something like this one that was in a Vallejo paper:

Dolores Aguilar, born in 1929 in New Mexico, left us on August 7, 2008. She will be met in the afterlife by her husband, Raymond, her son, Paul Jr., and daughter, Ruby.

Dolores had no hobbies, made no contribution to society and rarely shared a kind word or deed in her life. I speak for the majority of her family when I say her presence will not be missed by many, very few tears will be shed and there will be no lamenting over her passing.

Her family will remember Dolores and amongst ourselves we will remember her in our own way, which were mostly sad and troubling times throughout the years. We may have some fond memories of her and perhaps we will think of those times too. But I truly believe at the end of the day ALL of us will really only miss what we never had, a good and kind mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. I hope she is finally at peace with herself. As for the rest of us left behind, I hope this is the beginning of a time of healing and learning to be a family again.

There will be no service, no prayers and no closure for the family she spent a lifetime tearing apart. We cannot come together in the end to see to it that her grandchildren and great-grandchildren can say their goodbyes. So I say here for all of us, GOOD BYE, MOM.

- w00t I'll might be able to make it to happy hour on a thursday/friday since I'm taking those days off and coming to sac.
- what are the 2-3 BEST happy hour places I should check out? (i'm more interested in the food)

- Spataro's has good happy hour food. Bistro 33 and Mason's are also good, although I'm not sure if the bar food has also suffered at Mason's since the chef left. These places are all within walking distance of each other.
